RAIN STOPS FAST TRIALS

HEAVY GOING INTERRUPTS TRAINING OPERATIONS AT LOUISVILLE TRACK.

Shipments of Horses to Lexington Continue—Meridian May Be Kentucky Derby Starter—Clay Barn Reported to Shelter Crack Two-Year-Old.

Louisville, Ky., April 28.—Heavy going prevented fast trials today at the local race courses. At that, fully 150 horses were given work at the Downs and Douglas Park. The excellent condition of the Downs makes it possible for horses to work right after a rain without ill effects. The Kentucky Derby candidates, Star O'Ryan and Tay Pay, were cantered and trotted three-quarters of a mile. Mud still was sent a half in better than one minute. The Oakland Stable's Doncaster is out of the Kentucky Derby. He is backward in preparation and will be fitted for sprint races. If he races creditably and appears to fancy a route trainer Blanchard will get the colt ready for his Latonia Derby engagement.

The string of J. H. Meade, in charge of trainer John Lowe, has been shipped to Lexington. Those taken there include Chapultepec, Rompie and Marian Casey. John Lowe was left at the Downs, because he has been cantering for the past few days. Barney Schreiber is at Lexington. His Derby candidate, Captain Carmody, was shipped there this morning. He will start in the Blue Grass Stakes May 10.

Pat Dunne left tonight for Lexington. His horses, in charge of Frank Hanlon, left this morning. Barn Dance is not up to a race and he was left here.

Thos. Fortune Ryan, the New York financier, will race at the Downs this spring for the first time. His horses, in charge of D. M. Carter, arrived at Douglas Park in good condition, excepting that Over Kender was found to be suffering from congestion of the right lung. Others in the string are Wonder Why, Daingerfield, Belle Hampton, Kate Sterling and Belle Nelson. These horses were wintered in Virginia at the Ryan farm.

Trainer James Gass has decided not to ship Syzygy and Shadale to Lexington and none of L. P. Dever's horses will be represented there unless trainer Shelby West concludes to send Mary Davis over next week to run in the Brewster's Stakes on the final day.

In spite of reports to the contrary, it is regarded as reasonably certain that Meridian will start in the Kentucky Derby. The final decision will come after he runs in the Blue Grass Stakes at Lexington. His trainer says that the son of Broomstick is as forward in condition as any of the candidates that have not raced this spring.

T. P. Hayes has secured stall room at Douglas Park for his string of horses and he will ship them here when the Lexington meeting ends. The good three-year-old, Oracle, is in the Hayes string.

Among the horses taken to Lexington by Woodford Clay was a two-year-old colt by Broomstick—Thirty-third, which horsemen at Douglas Park expect will win the Breeders' Futurity. The youngster has not worked faster here than many two-year-olds, but the way he has cantered suggests that he is capable of running fast. Horsemen around the Clay barn claim that when the colt is set down even Ocean Bound cannot outrun him. He is as good looking as any other youngster in training here.

Henderson & Hogan may ship Cret to Lexington to run in the Brewster's Stakes. This gelding looks good and trainer Henderson thinks the distance of that race will just suit the horse. He reached this decision when he learned that Follie Levy would not start in the race.

W. H. Fizer has obtained first call on Jockey Hufnagel's services for the Lexington meeting.

HOW FRANCE ENCOURAGES BREEDING.

Horse-breeding is more systematized and more state-aided in France than anywhere else. The three great categories of French horses are thoroughbreds, half-bloods and draught horses. The first have the reputation of being the best in the world; the second are indefatigable for saddle and light harness; while French draught horses, whether Percheron, Breton or Normans, Boulogne or Arden, are known and admired far and wide.

Though France is the playground of the motor car and the automobile, the application of the motor to industry, nevertheless her horses have increased in quantity and have grown better in quality. Here are the figures as to quantity: In 1876 France had 2,800,000 horses; in 1906 3,165,025. About 300,000 colts are foaled every year, and last year about 20,000 horses were sold to foreign countries. Belgium, 10,000; Germany, 7,000; Switzerland, 5,500; Spain, 3,000; Italy, 2,000; England, 1,000. England doubtless bought many more French horses through Belgium.

The nation encourages the breeding of horses in a variety of ways and the administration of the state stables forms an important part of the Ministry of Agriculture. The horse-breeding of the whole country is divided into twenty-two administrations. For purposes of supervision these are subdivided into six general inspections, while a Director-General is responsible for them all to the Minister of Agriculture. There is also a Supreme Council of the national stables, consisting of twenty-four members named by the President of the Republic, from men who have distinguished themselves as horse-breeder. The chief officials of the national stables are recruited from the great Stable School of Le Pin in Normandy, where they receive technical training.

While the defense of the nation is constantly kept in view when there is question of encouraging horse-breeding, nevertheless the stallions are selected from a commercial and agricultural standpoint as well as from a military point of view. There are four categories of stallions in France. The first and most important are those which belong to the state and are called national stallions. The second, third and fourth categories are called approved, accepted and tolerated stallions respectively. These three classes are owned by private individuals. The owner of an approved stallion receives an annual bonus varying from $40 to $60 a year. The owner of an accepted stallion receives no bonus. Tolerated stallions are those of which an official statement is made that they do not suffer from eye trouble, and are not roaners. The result of official control is that these hereditary diseases have almost entirely disappeared.

In the report of the year 1908, published by the general manager of the state stables, the figures as to the number of state stallions are as follows: Thoroughbreds, 267; half-bloods, 2,214; draught horses, 644. Of the thoroughbreds 239 were English and 228 Anglo-Arabs. These 3,425 stud horses were distributed over the twenty-two establishments of the National stables, and stood at 750 stations, serving 151,049 mares. Besides these there were 1,709 approved, 208 authorized and a number of tolerated or accepted stallions, the property of private owners. A brevet of approval or of authorization or of tolerance is issued by the officials of the National stables. In all classes there are thorough-

KENTUCKY SEASON OF BRILLIANT PROMISE OPENS TODAY

All in Readiness for the Meeting at the Historic Lexington Course, Where Great Horses and Prominent Turfmen Have Gathered—Inaugural Card to Be Run Over Heavy Track

Lexington, Ky., April 28.—The Kentucky Association will have a muddy track for the opening of its spring meeting tomorrow afternoon, the result of several heavy showers today. The forecast, however, is for fair weather tomorrow and if it is clear and warm, one of the largest crowds ever seen here will be at the historic racing grounds to witness the running of a good inaugural card, the feature of which will be the Phoenix Hotel Handicap, at one and one-sixteenth miles, with an estimated value of $1,400. There are thirty-six eligibles to this race and ten were announced through the entry box this morning as probable starters. Any one of the twenty-six, however, may be added up to within forty-five minutes of post time for the race and it is entirely likely that there will be some changes. R. F. Carman has not made up his mind whether he will start both Bonnie Kelsie and Starbelle or only the latter. In any event Jockey George Archibald will ride his preferred entry. Countless the only superior mud runner of the ten, will be piloted by J. Deavenport. Henry McDaniel said tonight that he is in doubt about starting Polls, but if he goes, J. H. Fizer will have the mount. Roscoe Goose will have the mount on Consolo. Jack Keene has not fully made up his mind about Boola Boola, but should he start A. Thomas will be his pilot. Cherryola is almost certain to go and J. Moore is slated for the mount. Round the World, Any Port and Ex-empt are doubtful. There is a probability of the addition of Fox Mary, 101; Royal Report, 105, and County Tax, 97. Countless will be the public choice and will have heavy support. The card is well balanced and keen contests will be produced in a majority of the races whatever the state of the going. The officials have everything in readiness for the opening and the greatest and most successful period of racing in the history of Lexington. There were never as many horses here ready for racing as at present and never was there keener interest in the sport. The city is rapidly filling with visitors for the meeting and there will be starting parties tomorrow morning from Louisville, Cincinnati and way points, to say nothing of the hundreds from the towns in the immediate blue grass region.

An innovation tomorrow will be the free field and it is expected that the ground within the rail of the mile oval will be swarming with people who, if required to pay $1 for admittance, could never have the pleasure of witnessing a day's racing.

Captain Thomas H. Clay will be the presiding judge and his associates in the stand tomorrow will be President Catesby Woodford of the Kentucky Association and Racing Secretary William H. Shelley. Mars Cassidy, who arrived from Norfolk today, will do the starting. John Rodger and John T. Ireland will serve as timers. John Walsh will be paddock judge and Tom Brown is the entry clerk.

There will be ample riding material here, among them some that rank with the topnotchers and including the following: G. Mountain, G. Archibald, E. Martin, N. Kennedy, R. Trovler, G. Mooserworth, J. Deavenport, W. Oberl, B. Steele, A. Thomas, J.

breeds, including English, Arab and Anglo-Arab; half-bloods and draught horses. And all stud horses of whatever class are examined by sanitary commissions appointed for this purpose. Horse-breeding in France is well described as a quasi enterprise of the state. It sends the national stallions into every commune. The farmers can take their choice of thoroughbreds or half-bloods or draught horses. If they choose the first the fee never exceeds $20, and for the second or third it varies from $2.50 to $3. Yet the fees last season amounted to over $200,000. What the state horses mean to the farmer may be understood from the fact that the service of a winner of the Grand Prix, when he becomes the property of the state, will not cost more than $20, whereas if owned privately the fee might be $1,000 or more.

Horse-breeding is also greatly encouraged by prizes given at shows. There are shows for stallions, broodmares, colts, fillies and all sorts and conditions of horses. Five hundred such reunions were held last year. In addition to these, fourteen special shows for saddle horses were organized by the state. Though the generous support of the state stables is largely in view of furnishing horses for the army, there is a special society for the encouragement of breeding war-horses.

The Jockey Club takes the technical direction of flat-racing and the Society of French Steeplechasers does the same for the races after which it is named. But the state co-operates with both. All over France there are minor societies which control about 300 race courses. In no other country has racing become such a popular form of amusement. Book-betting is forbidden in France and the pari-mutuel system works with the mathematical honesty of a machine. Seven per cent. is deducted from the total amount. Of this percentage three goes to the Charities Department of the government, two to the society that owns the race course and two for staff and other purposes. French race courses are all admirably kept and the flat race course at Longchamps and the steeplechase course at Auteuil, the latter being the form of an S, are the finest in the world. The Grand Prix de Paris, run at Longchamps in the month of June, and supposed to close the fashionable season, is for $60,000, the largest prize anywhere. The enormous sum of $4,250,000 is spent annually for the encouragement of horse-breeding in France. The lion's share goes to the races. Here are the figures:

For races, $3,475,000; prizes for fillies, colts, broodmares, stallions, $365,000; bonuses for approved stallions, $140,000; prizes at training shows, $210,000; prizes for thoroughbred mares, $12,000.

The breeding of the pure Arab is not a national industry, and is confined chiefly to the Pyrenean region. France boasts of only 125 Arab stallions, but their importance is considerable in the southwest, for they give to their gets sobriety, endurance, character and courage.

The French thoroughbred has given a good account of himself at home and also abroad ever since Jouvence won the Goodwood Cup in 1853. Monarque the same in 1857, and Gladiator the Derby and St. Leger in 1865. French horses have won the great international race, the Grand Prix de Paris, thirty-five times out of fifty-one. The thoroughbred is indispensable for amelioration of the race and as a means to that end; that is, for the production of half-blooded horses so admirable for the army. Many of the officers are mounted on thoroughbreds. Of late years the three-quarters bred has become a great favorite among the officers.

The Anglo-Norman is a magnificent carriage horse and an excellent trotter. Trotting races have flourished in France since 1836 and are encouraged by the state and by societies just as flat racing and steeplechasing, but in a minor degree. While the trotter and the carriage horse are excellent for harness, the officers all agree that they are not good war horses chiefly because they are not good gallopers. In England the army benefits by sport, in France sport benefits by the army.

For twenty-five years France has not had to go abroad to buy military remounts. After supplying Allen, T. Rice, C. Ganz, R. Goose, J. Howard, G. Warren, T. Koerner, A. Walsh, T. McTaggart, C. Hufnagel, W. Garzan, J. Denny, C. Aker, M. McGee, J. Moore, R. Higgins, H. Skirvin, J. McCabe, J. Patrick and F. H. King.

Harry Morrissey and James Osborne, assistants to starter Cassidy, arrived this morning from Norfolk and were busy during the day fixing the starting posts in position. Morrissey stated that the scarcity of stable room at Pimlico is forcing the Maryland Association to turn horsemen away and the latter will of necessity have to come here. A majority of those that raced at Norfolk could not be accommodated at Pimlico. There is also a rumor current that the Marlboro track will not be operated this spring because of failure to secure a license from the county officials.

Matt J. Winn, general manager of the Churchill Downs, Juarez and Empire City tracks, will head a delegation from Louisville that will arrive late tonight. Charles F. Price, the well-known president of jockey, will be among those to come from the Falls City.

John Hachmeister will arrive tomorrow from Cincinnati with a party of friends to be on hand for the opening. Mr. Hachmeister has been occupied of late in supervising the improvements now going on at the Latonia track.

During the early hours today and prior to the hard rains several fast work-outs were recorded. Joe Morris worked a mile and an eighth in impressive fashion in 1:54. New Star's seven-eighths in 1:31 was also accomplished in superior style. Sam Bernard showed to advantage by going a mile and an eighth in 1:57, the last part of the journey under restraint. Other creditable work-outs were as follows:

Bettie Lester—Mile in 1:45.
Charley Straus—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Belaney—Three-quarters in 1:18.
Ella Louise—Three-eighths in 36.
Joe Diebold—Half mile in 49.
Myrtle Marion—Mile in 1:45.
Son—Three-quarters in 1:19.

Track superintendent James Ross is of the belief that if no more rain falls during the night the track will be in fairly good condition and that a mile will be run over it in better than 1:43. The "dogs" will be kept on the track throughout the morning and trainers will be forced to give their charges breathing room by sending them to the sand course adjoining the main track.

Today's arrivals of horses from Louisville consisted of those owned by Pat Dunne, W. H. Fizer, Henderson & Hogan and J. H. Meade. Pat Dunne shipped eight, including his fast sprinter, Sebago, which is entered starter in the inaugural. Henderson & Hogan's lot comprised six head, W. H. Fizer's seven and J. H. Meade's three.

Eugene Elrod, who will be in charge of the information department and the men operating the mutuel machines, arrived tonight from his home in Louisville. There will be seven machines, three of the $2 denominations and a number for $5 bettors and one $10 straight machine.

PLANS FOR RACING AT WOODBINE.

Toronto, Ont., April 28.—The program book of the Ontario Jockey Club's May meeting provides for seven races daily, and it is probable that the first will be called at 2 o'clock. Three stakes, the King's Plate, Woodstock Plate and Minto Stakes, will be decided on the opening day, Saturday, May 20.

A new rule in this year's book is the following, which has been effective elsewhere in holding a program together and providing interesting contests instead of walkovers:

"In purse races and overnight handicaps an owner can withdraw his horse by paying five per cent. of the first money, declaration and payment to be made to the clerk of the scales by 9 a. m. the day of the race. In such races with more than eight (8) entries, owners shall have the right to declare out to that number free of charge, such right to be determined by lot. Declaration fees will be divided, sixty per cent. to the second horse and forty per cent. to the third."

ACTION NEXT WEEK AT TALLAHASSEE.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 28.—The Terrill anti-race track bill is far down on the house calendar and not likely to come up before the middle of next week, as a strong lobby on both sides is here working for and against the measure. The indications are that the bill will pass, possibly with a modifying amendment excluding state and county fair meetings from its provisions.

PIMLICO PROSPECTS GOOD

EXCELLENT SPORT IN STORE FOR PATRONS OF MARYLAND TRACK.

Pick of Eastern Horses Quartered at Baltimore Course in Readiness for Today's Opening—The Track Itself in Fine Condition.

Baltimore, Md., April 28.—Excellent sport is in store for race goers at Pimlico this spring. The best horses in the east are here to participate in the racing this year, and gathered on this famous old racing ground are the pick of the thoroughbreds in the country. All of the important eastern owners have some of their horses to go to the post on the opening day. The Maryland Jockey Club has provided a program of seven races for the occasion, two of them being for two-year-olds.

Superintendent Brennan has the track in splendid condition and sensational time probably will be recorded during the meeting, provided conditions remain as they are today. All of the private boxes in the stand and clubhouse enclosures have been engaged and the best element in this section will turn out to extend a helping hand to the thoroughbred.

Many prominent men interested in racing are already here. Thomas Clyde is a daily attendant at the course in the morning to watch Capt. Fred Pregrave prepare his young horses for their season's campaign. All of Mr. Clyde's horses are in forward condition. The good four-year-old Dalhousie has been taken up until fall, if then.

W. P. Burch arrived from Washington this morning with the horses of Samuel Ross and also a couple owned by Thomas Hitechock. The latter is here and the horses that W. H. Karriek is training for him are being worked under his supervision. Mr. Hitechock is very enthusiastic over a couple of his two-year-olds which promise to develop into good racers. Sprite, which is carded to start tomorrow, is one of his favorites.

W. H. Snyder, who is looking after the two-year-olds in S. C. Hildreth's stable, is on the track every morning astride a black pony. There are some good looking youngsters in his charge.

The horses will be called to the post for the first race at three o'clock.

Some of the best work-outs this morning were: Cliff Edge—Half mile in 47.5.
Everett—Three-quarters in 1:15.
Hampton Court—Mile in 1:43.
King James—Five-eighths in 1:03.
Martin Doyle—Mile in 1:42.
Phivous—Five-eighths in 1:04.
Rose Queen—Half mile in 47.5.
Shannon—Five-eighths in 1:02.
Sir Raymond—Three-quarters in 1:17.
St. Regis—Seven-eighths in 1:04.
The Squire—Three-quarters in 1:13.
Theo Cook—Three-quarters in 1:15.
Warbler—Three-quarters in 1:17.

The usual number of layers will be in line tomorrow, thirty-five stands having been set apart for their use.

Most of S. C. Hildreth's horses are ready to race. The work of this stable of stars is being closely watched. Yesterday Novely was cantered three-quarters in 1:17. Fitz Herbert and Priscillian worked three-quarters in 1:14. Hampton Court, Restigouche and Rose Queen also worked satisfactorily. Dan Den, in the string of Albert Simons, has worked the fastest three-quarters recorded here so far. He went five-eighths in 1:03 and three-quarters in 1:13. Other recent work-outs:

Blackford—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Charivari—Three-quarters in 1:18.
Cliff Edge—Three-quarters in 1:20.
Cloud—Three-quarters in 1:14.
Firestone—Mile in 1:44.
G. M. Miller—Mile in 1:45.
Hampton Court—Mile in 1:43.
Hatteras—Three-quarters in 1:14.
Henry Munro—Three-eighths in 37.5.
Jim Basey—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Joe Madden—Mile in 1:46.
Lad of Landon—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Ossabar—Five-eighths in 1:04.
Restigouche—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Rose Queen—Half mile in 51.5.
Scarus—Three-quarters in 1:14.
The Squire—Three-quarters in 1:18.

ATMAH FIRST IN ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS.

London, Eng., April 28.—At Newmarket today the race for the One Thousand Guineas, for three-year-old fillies over the Rowley Mile, was won by James A. de Rothschild's bay filly, Atmah, by Gazez. Mrs. Kendal, with J. B. Joel's bay filly, Radiance, by Sundridge—Queen Elizabeth, second and Major Eustace Loder's brown filly, Knockferna, third. Sixteen fillies ran, of which only one was an American candidate, August Belmont's Sandwich.

Atmah started in seven races last year without winning, but ran well notwithstanding her last race being her best and one of real merit. This was in the Dewhurst Plate at seven-eighths of a mile at the Newmarket Houghton meeting. King William and Phryxus making a dead heat for first place with Atmah third only a head away. Lycaon, Prince Palatine, Prince San and Bridge of Allan running unplaced. She was unplaced in the Prince of Wales Nursery Handicap at Doncaster; unplaced in the Wigston Maiden Plate at Leicester; third to Sunder and Sunshine in the Forty-eighth New Biennial Stakes at Ascot and unplaced in the Acorn Stakes at Epsom and the Ashley Plate at the Newmarket Craven meeting. This record is hardly one to brag about, but is thoroughly illustrative of the uncertainty attending the racing of fillies early in the year. On this side of the water, disappointment will be felt because the Hamburg—Lady Frivoles filly could not be brought to the post fit and well.

PLANNING FOR SALES OF YEARLINGS.

Lexington, Ky., April 28.—Plans are in formation to sell all thoroughbred yearlings in Kentucky next fall. There was a gathering of breeders and owners of racers at John E. Madden's Hamburg Place recently, when the subject of a market for the yearlings came up. It was the consensus of opinion that they should be sold in Lexington during the September meeting of the Kentucky Association, and following this it was proposed by one of the party that the breeders should form an association and sell them under a co-operative plan that would further decrease the expense of cataloging, auctioneering, etc. It was decided that a meeting of breeders should be called for some day next week. The fact that there is to be no racing in New York in June and July, and possibly none at all this year, eliminates the metropolis as a market place for racers.

DANDY DANCER TAKES PENSACOLA FEATURE.

Pensacola, Fla., April 28.—Aside from the race for gentlemen riders, little interest was attached to the offering here this afternoon, for the most ordinary selling plates were engaged. The amateur race was won in a drive by Fred Blount on Dandy Dancer. He got up in the last stride to beat out the pacemaker, Elsie Van.

Jockeys Hall and A. Matthews engaged in a duel with whips during the stretch drive in the fourth race, but escaped with a reprieve from the judges. Automatic and Chalice will be sent to Louisville tomorrow by F. Schrickel.

All the horsemen are preparing to ship away directly to the meeting closes. J. W. Tate will leave Pensacola with San Gil and Big Osage for Louisville Saturday. J. Olson intends shipping Boscarron to the same place. C. B. Daniels will leave tomorrow for Texas with St. Dunstan.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Raymond M. Dale of O'Appelle, Canada, is on his way home from England with two young stallions.

On a recent race at Buenos Ayres the big dividend of $501.25 was paid in the $2 mutuels, with $76 for $2 for a place. In the Argentine place embraces second and third.

The horses of J. L. McGinnis, the Quincy Stable, J. Dowdell, Frank Frisbie and Thomas Collins have been shipped from Sheephead Bay to Pimlico. Clint De Witt is in charge of the Quincy Stable string.

Trainers and jockeys who intend to follow their avocation during the racing season of the Canadian Racing Associations, should make applications for licenses at once, so that they may be passed on at the approaching meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations Committee.

MILLER HENDERSON'S RACING CONNECTIONS.

Miller Henderson, of the racing firm of Henderson & Hogan, graduated into the racing of thoroughbreds from the ranks of the gentlemen riders. As a young fellow around his home town of Louisville, Ky., he won a deal of fame as a gentleman rider and extracted so much pleasure and fascination from it that he embarked in the sport and has been racing horses as an owner and trainer for seventeen years. Henderson comes from a family of horsemen. His father, W. N. Henderson, was a famous trotting horseman before him and Miller has several uncles who have been prominently identified with racing. For the past seven years he has been associated with Frank G. Hogan and the firm is interested in a way in a breeding establishment in Kentucky. They have nine brood mares at present.
